

VENTURA, CA (December 17, 2018)

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Ventura's Earth Day Eco Fest Saturday, April 27, 2019 – 10am to 4pm

WHAT: The 12th Annual Ventura Earth Day Eco Fest: This free event is the perfect way to spend a day with the whole family. The festival is the largest Earth Day celebration in Ventura County, attracting thousands of visitors and featuring 100+ exhibitors. This community driven takes place in Plaza Park off Thompson St. in the heart of Downtown Ventura. Each year over 200 volunteers work hard to make the event a success. For 2019 expect to enjoy all-day entertainment, a kid's zone full of fun activities, free yoga classes throughout the day, scavenger hunt, raffle, silent auction, food trucks, Green Car Expo and much more.

An Earth Day Family Bike Ride organized by Channel Island Bicycle Club is planned again this year in coordination with the City of Ventura.

WHEN: Saturday, April 27, 2019 10am to 4pm

WHERE: Plaza Park, Ventura, CA

WHO: Organized by Ventura Charter School of Arts and Global Education in cooperation with the City of Ventura. All proceeds from the day-long event go toward funding enrichment programs for kindergarten through eighth grade students at the tuition-free public school. Your support builds a conscious community that shapes our future generations.
